Operation Wrapped in Remembrance-

Knit a scarf for a veteran, drop it off at the RSA before Nov 11th. This was a project brought forward by NZRSA Women's section, just another way to thank and appreciate our veterans as this is the 80th year of peace in Europe.

A few Makos dropped by to give us an update on how they are performing this year, they got alot of support from us. Fins up!

Zoe Norquay received the Merit badge which is awarded to members who have shown outstanding and continued commitment and service to the RSA and its members. It was a very special night with special guest , District President , Franco Horridge and pizza!
